Dear Prospective Chamber of Commerce Member,

This is an exciting time to be a member of the Luxury Chamber of Commerce! There is an energy of excitement & opportunity in South Florida. This year investors & businesses people alike are taking advantage of opportunities which exist in every sector of the luxury marketplace. The South Florida real estate market is ripe, the stock market is undervalued, yachts, cars, & even jewelry can be taken as very affordable investments. South Florida luxury businesses are teaming with opportunity and growth. Witness fashion giant Perry Ellis declare improved earnings, hotel occupancy improving, foreclosure opportunities still on the rise, the cruise & tourism industry once again declaring public offerings, luxury car sales rebounding, and retirement age encroaching upon baby-boomers in the north; all leave South Florida as the land of luxury & opportunity for smart investors & businesses people alike.

If you want to grow your business and be involved in the community, then this the place for you. We provide opportunities for you to network with other members through mixers, business luncheons and meetings. Your ideas for improving the chamber and what it can offer are always welcome. You'll find opportunities for you and your employees to truly make a difference in our community through participating in one of many projects we sponsor, including "Lunch at Neiman Marcus on Earth Day" and "Annual Holiday Gala & Awards Ceremony".

You are invited to attend one of our events. We host Monthly Monday Marina events which are tailor made to bring marine industry professionals together with those in reciprocal industries to share referrals and discuss business over cocktails & hors d'oeuvres at a local marina. We also host chamber luncheons with guest speakers and tailor made office parties to welcome our new members into the chamber of commerce network. Please check our web-site for upcoming events: www.luxurychamber.com.
